(U) Petaluma – Nearly 100 Arrested at California Duck Farm

(U) Nearly 100 animal rights activists have been arrested during an unlawful assembly at a Northern California duck farm. The Sonoma County Sheriff's Office says the arrests, mostly for trespassing, were made at the Reichardt Duck Farm in Petaluma. The office says the activists "demanded" to be arrested after a daylong action involving hundreds of people. The group Direct Action Everywhere objected to what it says are cruel conditions. One man suffered minor injuries while chained to machinery.
